A grease fire caused approximately $65,000 in damage to a home on the south side. The owner was home cooking when the fire occurred. The owner attempted to extinguish the fire by throwing flour on it, but was unsuccessful. Two other family members were home and were not injured. The home did have working smoke detectors. Red Cross was not needed.

Damage Estimate - $65,000
Cause – Grease fire
Origin – Center area of home.

Safety Message: Have a working smoke detector and an escape plan. If the smoke detector sounds, exit immediately and never ever re-enter a burning building for any reason.
